Understanding learning disability

Tom's story

Tom, 24, was the first person to find employment through WorkRight – as a postroom assistant with Pitney Bowes. Tom's colleagues agree that he is a great asset to the company.

Tom said, "This is the chance I've been waiting for. I'm finally off benefits and in a good job that I know I do well. Now I'm saving up so I can leave home and get my own place."

WorkRight can work for you too...
